AWARD-WINNING
WEDDING CINEMATOGRAPHY

LOS ANGELES, CA + WORLDWIDE

A bride in a white lace gown stands on a balcony, looking back over her shoulder. The background shows a coastal scene with the ocean, rocks, and mountains under a clear sky.

THE

PERFECT

CHOICE

We know that our couples put their hearts into their wedding — making them unique, memorable, and reflective of their own personal taste. We honor their dedication by giving our couples a beautiful final product equivalent to their love.

We are based in — but not limited to — Los Angeles, CA.

We love working with couples whose top priority is quality cinematography for their wedding. Given our experience, we understand the value of highlighting raw emotions with our cinematic style and go above and beyond in featuring those moments.

We are hands-on with each project because we do not want to leave our couples with a generic and uninspired wedding film — meaning, you won't find us, "just showing up and pressing record."

That is the personal investment our couples get from choosing us over a company that prioritizes business over a relationship. Honestly, our main goal is to make our couples happy. That is what you can expect from us at

AndHer Visuals.
