Born in Tuscany, yet Ligurian by adoption, founder and CEO of Musica Evento, Celeste Ieffa - aka Andrea Celeste - is an accomplished pop-jazz singer and songwriter, recording artist and first-class performer who wins over with her talent, charm and versatility.

Celeste started her career when only adolescent and since then she has liaised with outstanding musicians like Dado Moroni, Joe Locke, Vittorio De Scalzi, Zibba and American producer and 24-time Grammy winner Al Schmitt (Capitol Studios, Los Angeles, US).

She has performed on international stages such as Blue Note (Milan IT), Dizzy's Club (New York US), Wabe (Berlin), Monte Carlo Jazz Festival (Monaco), Mendrisio Jazz Club (Switzerland), Ischia Jazz Festival (Italy), Dima Jazz Festival (Algeria), Lovere Jazz Festival (Italy), etc. and recorded five albums including highly personalized versions of jazz-pop standards and her original tunes.

Given her expertise as a music professional and performer both in public concerts and private events, Celeste founded Musica Evento in 2013, at age 27, with the goal of offering world-class music services for luxury destination weddings, corporate events, and yacht parties.

Since then she has worked with numerous wedding planners, agencies and private clients at breathtaking locations in Tuscany, Lake Como Amalfi, Salento, the Ligurian Riviera and the Cote D'Azur.

Her commitment to music is total and her musical range spans from classical music and opera (which she has studied with Maestros such as Vittorio Scali and world-famous baritone Marco Camastra) to Jazz and Pop; for this reason she is able to tailor the most appropriate music entertainment to clients' taste and needs.

Last but not least, thanks to a large network of music professionals built in more than fifteen years of career, she can rely on a precious entourage of renowned and highly experienced musicians and sound & light technicians.
