

La Rosa Canina Studio

“I believe in the hands that work, in the brains that think, and in the hearts that love.

[...] I believe in sunshine, fresh air, friendship, calm sleep, beautiful thoughts.”

ELBERT HUBBARD

About Us

La Rosa Canina comes from an original idea by Tania Torrini, with a degree in art history and restorer of frescoes, she opened in 2002 La Rosa Canina, a small flower shop in the beautiful neighborhood of San Niccolò in Florence, together with his brother Tommaso Torrini, an advertising photographer. After more than a decade, our business has become the standard for stylish and original floral arrangements in Italy specialized in destination weddings.

Photo: Greg Fink

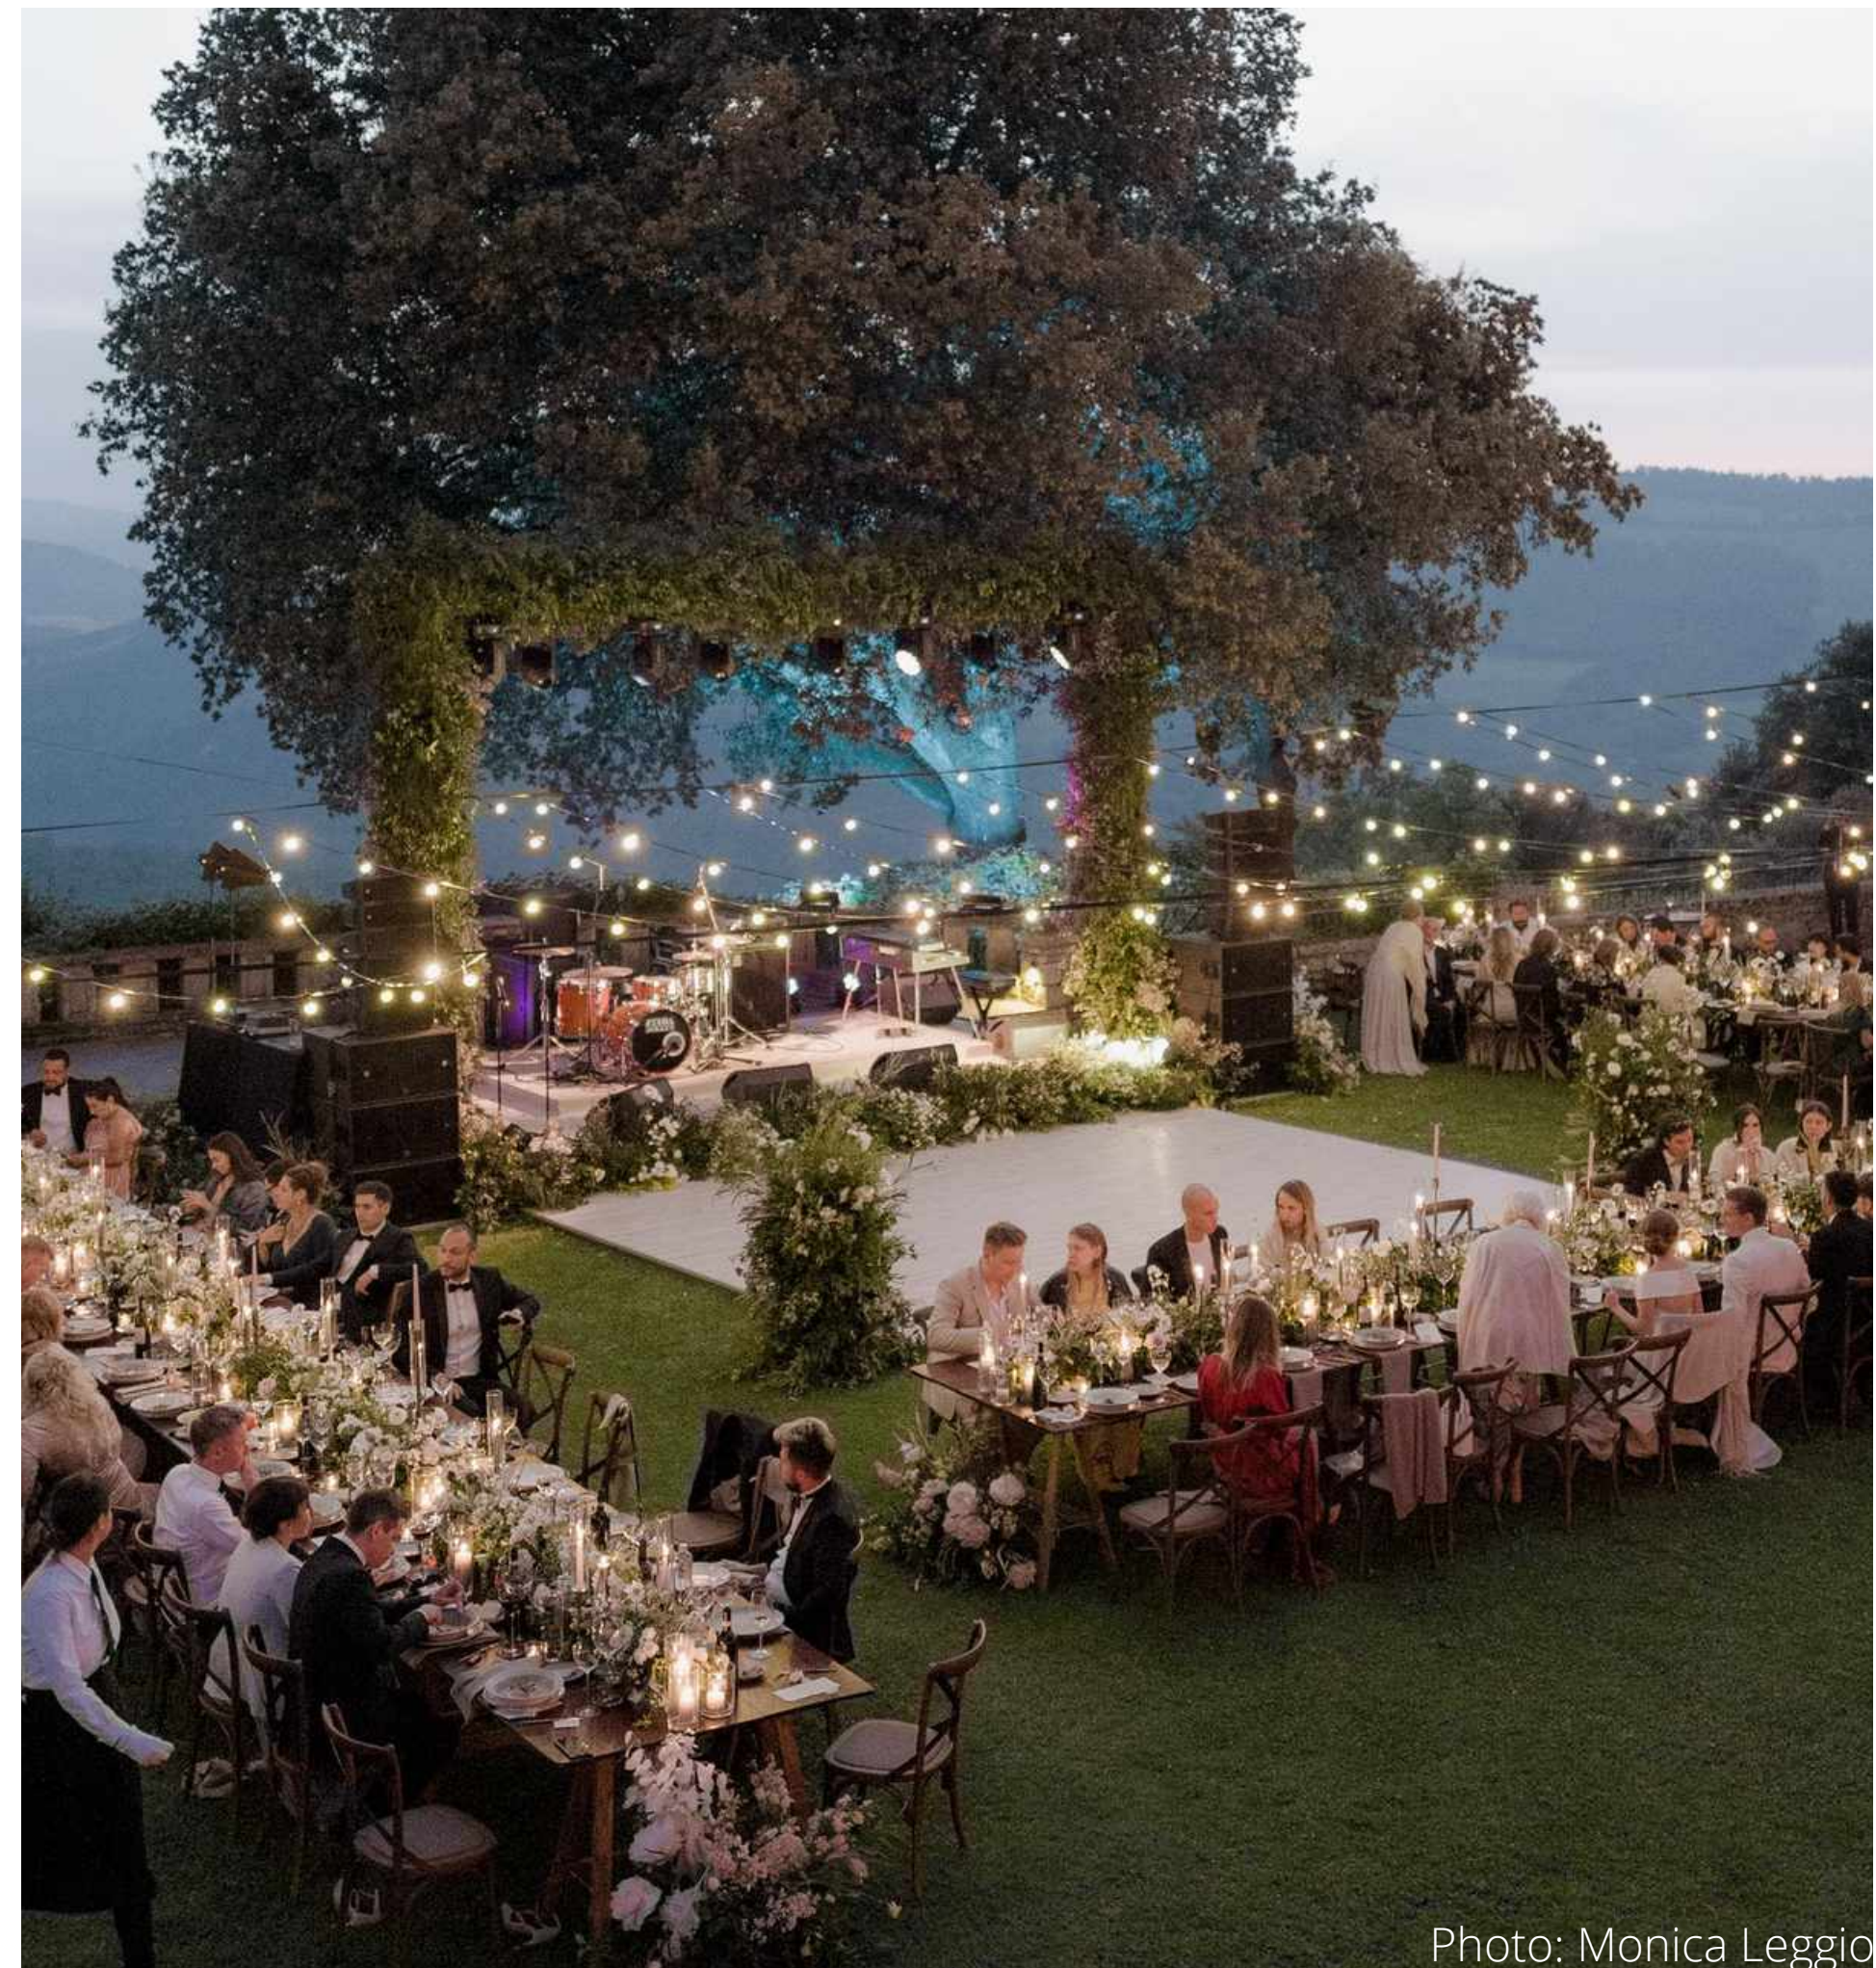

General Guidelines

-The minimum budget is 4.500 € (+22% VAT). If the number of guests exceeds 45, you have to add 100 € for each further.

-The cost of an eventual inspection is of 250 € in the spot. This amount is reimbursed (subtracted from final payment) in case of closing of the deal.

-For the decoration project, you should send us a moodboard for the style, that should not diverge considerably from our aesthetic reference and personal styling.

-To book the date definitely, we always require a down payment of 2000 €.

OUR BELIEFS

The search for the detail, the work to create a unique and unrepeatably atmosphere, the attention to the use of uncommon materials and natural, especially the aspiration to give back through the flowers a more harmonious relationship between man and nature: These are the priorities that distinguish La Rosa Canina project. The style of La Rosa Canina is no more than an expression of a personal taste refined over time, and full of artistic references that set aside the different schools of flower arrangement, becoming spokesmen of a real 'Aesthetic culture'.

www.larosacaninafioristi.it

Photo: Lisa Poggi